SNEAKY AND THE PROFESSOR

SAY, SNEAKY, I AND YOU CAN MAKE US SOME NEAT CASH IN THIS HERE SOLDIER TOWN.

HOW?

THERE'S PLENTY SOLDIERS HERE THAT OUGHT TO BE SUCKERS FOR A FINE CLAP REMEDY LIKE THIS. ALL I NEED IS A CONTACT MAN. HOW ABOUT IT?

OK, PROF. NOTHING I WOULDN'T DO TO RULL A COUPLE HONEST FISH. OFFER THEM 50 CENTS.

HERE'S MY BUSINESS CARD.

OK, BOSS. I KNOW WHERE TO PASS 'EM OUT.

LATER ON IN THE LOCAL JUNE JOINT.

YOU AINT A MAN 'TIL YOU GET A DOSE.

I KNOW A GUY WHO GOT IT. IT WAS NO FUN.

CAN YOU CURE IT YOURSELF?

SURE YOU CAN CURE IT YOURSELF. HERE'S HOW.

I'VE SEEN THAT PHONEY CLAP-TRAP BEFORE.

HIT THE ROAD, SCUM!

I'M GOIN', I'M GOIN' - DON'T HIT ME.

WHAT'S UP, SARGE?

THAT KINDA PUNK IS CONTACT MAN FOR A PHONEY CLAP DOCTOR. QUACKS LIKE THAT CAN GET YOU IN PLENTY TROUBLE. NOW HERE'S THE STRAIGHT STUFF ON GONORRHEA.

THE GONORRHOICUS DIES QUICKLY OUTSIDE - BUT IT'S TOUGHER HELL WHEN IT GETS INSIDE YOU.

IF YOU DO GET IT, WHEN DO YOU FIND OUT?

IN ABOUT A WEEK - YOU'RE A SORRY MESS. ITCHING, BURNING WHEN YOU URINATE, WITH PLUS DRIPPING FROM THE END OF YOUR PENIS.

NOW THESE SIGNS MAY GO AWAY, BUT DON'T LET THAT FOOL YOU. THE TROUBLE GOES ON JUST THE SAME.

IN SOME CASES THE BUGS GET WAY UP INSIDE YOU AND BACE CAN. YOUR BALLS MAY SWELL UP AND HURT LIKE THE DEVIL. IT MIGHT GET SO SERIOUS YOU CAN NEVER BE A FATHER. IF ANY OF THE PLUS EVER GETS IN YOUR EYES, IT CAN MAKE YOU BLIND AS A BAT.

EVEN IF NONE OF THESE THINGS HAPPEN, THE BUSS MAY STILL BE THERE - THEN WHEN YOU GET MARRIED, YOU GIVE THE DISEASE TO YOUR WIFE.

WHEW!

IF YOU WANT TO MISS ALL THIS TROUBLE - THE SUREST WAY IS TO JUST LAY OFF THESE GAMES YOU PICK UP. BUT IF YOU DO GO OUT, BE SURE AND TAKE CARE OF YOURSELF. USE A RUBBER AND TAKE A PRO.

AND IF YOU EVER GET BURNED, THE ONLY ONE WHO CAN HELP YOU IS YOUR MEDICAL OFFICER.

DON'T FALL FOR THIS CLAPTRAP.

MEANWHILE, ON THE WAY TO THE NEXT CAMP----

SHUT UP, YOU!

QUACK! QUACK!

"SHE GAVE ME COURAGE..."

PRIVATE WILLIAM DEMOFF, had polio when four months old, New York

"The burst of an 88-mm shell cleaned out my post. Two of my buddies were killed and five of us were wounded. We were up front near St. Lo and really giving it to the Germans with our fire when, I guess, one of their guns 'sawed' on us. Four hours later they had me in a field hospital, and they cleaned up my arm. Army nurses were everywhere. The one that took care of me was grand. She did everything for me. She gave me my penicillin treatments, but best of all, she gave me courage and made long, painful hours go by faster with her quick smile and cheerful manner. You know that field hospital was quite close to the lines and sometimes rear of the guns made me a little nervous, and I needed some to help me control myself. Well, the Army nurses did a grand job for me and I owe them plenty. They were never too busy to help

"SHE STOOD BY ME FOR HOURS"

SERGEANT HAMPTON KOPELA, captured whenever from Cold Spring, New York

"I dropped on France at H Hour minus five. That's five hours before the troops hit the beaches on D Day. On the plane going over they gave us mimeographed sheets telling us, 'the eyes of the world are on you.' But mostly we were wondering how many German eyes were on us as we came in over Caen at 700 feet. As we stood up to jump, the tracers started coming through the sides of the plane and through the windows. There was heavy mortar and machine-gun fire and sniping. I got mine nine days later, stemming a machine-gun nest. A sniper put bullets through both my legs. I was carried first to an evacuation hospital, then to a station hospital in England. A nurse gave me my first bath in two weeks and watched over me like I was a baby. She stood by me for twelve hours and it will be a long time before I forget her."

"SHE SURE WAS A WELCOME SIGHT . . ."

PRIVATE FIRST CLASS EDWARD STITZEL of Bowling, one of Merrill's survivors

"I was in command intelligence reconnaissance with Merrill's Marauders. For twelve days the Japs kept us trapped in the jungles of Burma. They had a regiment and we were fighting them with a battalion. It was on the ninth day that I got hit. I was in my fox hole and we were holding back a charge. A Jap machine gunner blasted me from close up. Three bullets went right through my helmet on the left side, but the steel deflected the bullets and they just crossed my skull. I was knocked down and I lost my speech temporarily, but I got up again mighty quick and finished off that Jap.

Three days later another battalion came up and freed us. They flew me out of Burma. The nurse on that plane - she sure was a welcome sight. I still get terrible headaches. But there's always an Army nurse to give me the 'happy' that makes them bearable.

"SHE WAS WONDERFUL . . ."

PRIVATE OTTO MAGGIORANI, Signal Corps, Injured near Bastia, New York

"The gang and I were stringing a main telephone line from Rome to Naples, working on the section near Spaccanaso, Italy, just behind Cassino when a German 88-mm shell hit thirty feet from the pole I was working on. The explosion threw me fifteen or twenty feet from the pole. Believe me, that shell rang me for a while. Shell fragments ripped through my left arm, and the fall broke my elbow in three places. Medical corporan helped me to a nearby evacuation hospital and turned me over to an Army nurse for treatment. She was wonderful and within fifteen minutes had me all cleaned up and ready for my operation. Afterward she gave me blood plasma and watched over me during the time I was suffering from the after-effects of the wound. From then on I saw lots of Army nurses, and it wasn't a case of just one or two being wonderful, but all of them."
